

TIMBER PLANTATIONS GETTING TO KNOW THE TREES

1.3 MILLION hectares of timber plantations in SOUTH AFRICA.

Less than 1% is other commercially grown species: → yellowwood, blackwood, jacaranda, oak and cypress.

99.7% is made up of 3 MAIN GENERA.

PINE

3 MAIN SPECIES

P. patula

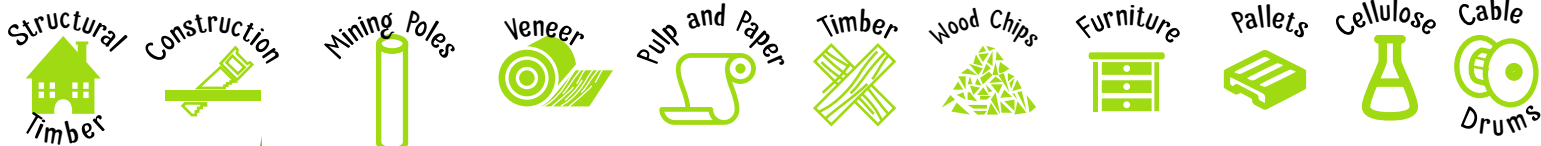

P. elliotti

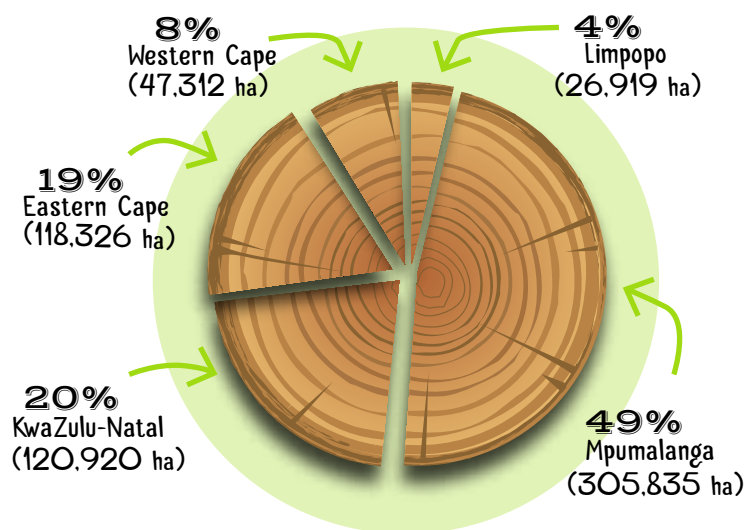

P. radiata

Plus various other species and hybrids selected and specifically bred to combat tree threats and improve production.

END PRODUCTS

WHERE ARE THE PLANTATIONS?

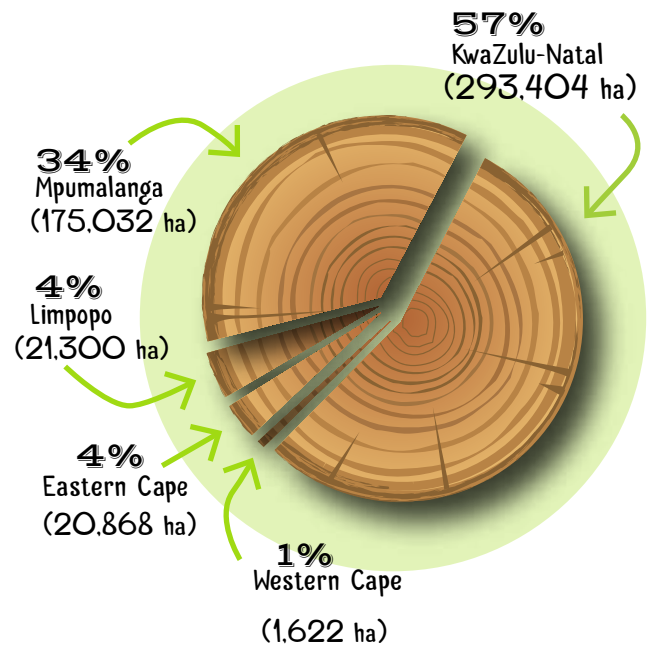

EUCALYPTUS

5 MAIN SPECIES

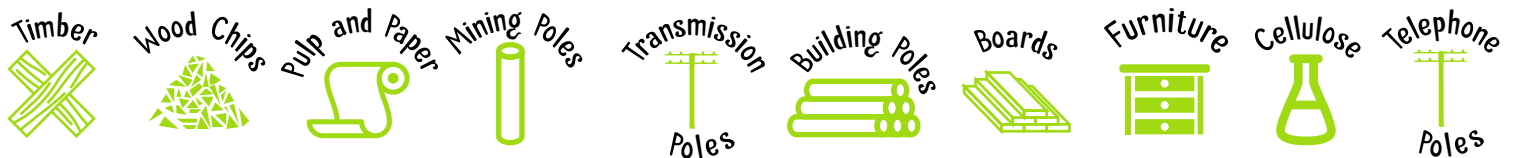

Plus various other species and hybrids selected and specifically bred to combat tree threats and improve production.

WHERE ARE THE PLANTATIONS?

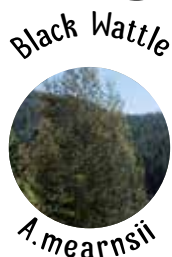

END PRODUCTS

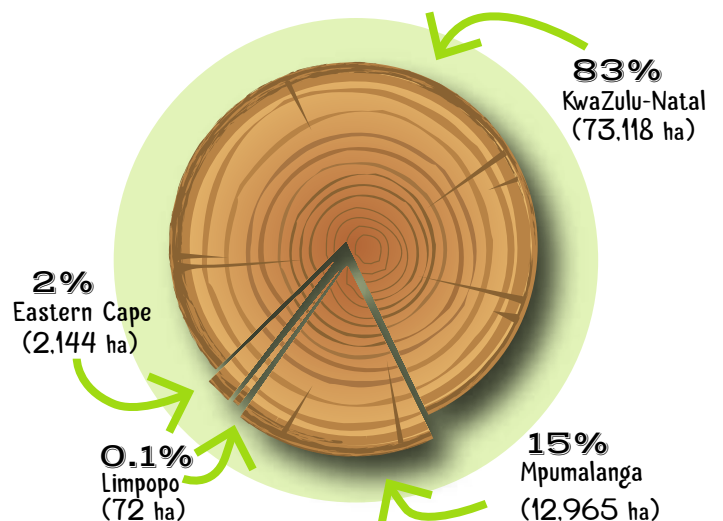

WATTLE

1 MAIN SPECIES

WHERE ARE THE PLANTATIONS?

END PRODUCTS

